

Virginia Association of Addiction Professionals

Invites You to Our
2017 Annual Meeting & Training
Considering Addiction Through Science and a Trauma Lens
Trauma-Informed Care
&
The Addicted Brain
6 CE Hours
Exclusively for VAAP Individual Members

Where

Four Points by Sheraton
4700 S. Laburnum Ave., Richmond, VA 23231
(804) 226-6518
VAAP Room Rate: $91/night (+ tax)
Room Rate Deadline: February 23, 2017

When

Friday, March 17, 2017
8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.
Register online at www.vaaddictionpros.org/am2017
Registration Deadline: March 3, 2017

AGENDA

(Tentative)

8:00–8:30 Check-in, Breakfast, Exhibits
8:30–11:30 Morning Sessions featuring:
Janet Loving, LPC, CSAC
Trish Mullen, LPC
Trauma-Informed Care

11:30–1:00 Annual Business Meeting Lunch
1:00–4:00 Afternoon Sessions featuring:
Pattie Schneeman, LSATP, CSAC
The Addicted Brain

Exhibit time and snack breaks throughout the day.

REGISTER TODAY! Registrations cannot be accepted after deadline or on-site.

DO YOU KNOW SOMEONE WHO WANTS TO ATTEND BUT IS NOT A VAAP MEMBER?

New first-time members may enjoy significant savings of $20 by joining VAAP at the Annual Meeting. VAAP membership includes membership in NAADAC – The Association for Addiction Professionals and more than 90 free online CE credits plus many more benefits (see www.naadac.org/benefits). Please click the “Register” button at www.vaaddictionpros.org/am2017 for details and please note that new members must register for the Annual Meeting & Training by March 3, 2017.

PRESENTERS

Janet Loving has a Master’s degree from the Medical College of Virginia-VCU Health Systems. She has been practicing as a Licensed Professional Counselor (LPC) and a Certified Substance Abuse Counselor (CSAC) for over 25 years. Her experience has been in private and public agencies working with persons with substance use, co-occurring disorders and issues with trauma. She currently works as a program manager for Adult Substance Abuse Services at Chesterfield Community Services Board.

Trish Mullen, has a Master’s Degree from the Medical College of Virginia-VCU Health Systems. She has been practicing as a Licensed Professional Counselor (LPC) for over 15 years. Trish is currently the Clinical Supervisor for Child and Adolescent Services at Chesterfield CSB. She’s also been in private practice for over 13 years treating Panic Disorder and providing specialized Trauma Treatment with adults. She is a member of the Greater Richmond Trauma-Informed Community Network.

Pattie Schneeman is a licensed substance abuse treatment practitioner (LSATP) with over 25 years of experience in the substance abuse treatment field. In her current position as clinical director with Phoenix House Mid-Atlantic, she oversees outpatient and partial hospitalization programs, training, and compliance. Pattie has national and state certifications in addiction counseling, a Bachelor of Science in Health Education from James Madison University, and a Master of Public Health degree from the University of South Carolina.